Hello and welcome to the next issue of Shout! This issue features just some of the key moments during our recent revival meeting The River.

We were so blessed at The River. It was incredible. I'm trusting that the Lord will use our encounter with Him as the starting point of greater things in our lives in Jesus' name. May your walk with Christ be refreshed, may you experience new beginnings, may God reveal Himself to you in a new dimension in the name of Jesus.

March is our month of Uncommon Progress. I declare this month: you are marching forward. You will not mark time on the same spot. You will move on to greatness, you will move on to glory. You will overcome satanic resistance. You are marching forward spiritually, materially; mentally, financially and physically.

This month will see you making progress. Triple favour is your portion. Blessings follow you. Dead things come alive. In your family no death is allowed; no lack is allowed; no breakdown is allowed; no isolation is allowed in the name of Jesus.

You are blessed and highly favoured
Senior Pastor Matthew & Resident Pastor Yemisi Ashimolowo

TESTIMONIES ABOUND AT THE RIVER

JEHOVAH JIREH

I was made redundant in February 2017, due to Brexit. I started a part time MBA programme after being made redundant. After 6 months of unemployment, I was contacted for an engineering role not far from where I live. I had two interviews and was offered a role more senior than the position I originally applied for.

After a few weeks in the job, my colleagues started picking on the field engineers' mistakes and began blaming me for their mistakes as I co-ordinated their tasks. I spoke to my line manager who reassured me. Day after day I went into work feeling frustrated.

During The River evening service on Sunday 4th Feb 2018 Pastor Matthew Ashimolowo asked everyone who called Joke to come to the altar. I went forward on behalf of my mum. Whilst Pastor was praying, he called me forward and prayed saying: "I take frustration off you, you're about to make a decision ... you don't know which way to go but God will guide you."

to send an email to the recruiter to say that I would no longer be attending the interview (I'd discussed my intention with my husband the night before), an email came in from my husband. He said: "You have never applied for all your best roles so far; they always found you. God is up to something. Go for that interview, Pastor prayed for you already, it's your job."

I went for the interview, three days later I was told the client wanted to offer me the position. It's with an engineering consultancy I've always admired. I handed in my one week notice as I was still on probation. It felt like a weight was lifted off my shoulders.

I thank God for Pastor Matthew and Pastor Yemisi Ashimolowo. Thank you for following the calling of God for your lives. Miracles happen at The River!

I was shaken to my core because a few days before, a recruiter phoned me and said: "I saw your CV on our database and my client needs your set of skills".

My current role was permanent but with a lower salary; the new position was a contract job. During that week I had a Skype interview, the next day I was told the client would like to interview me in person. I didn't know whether to go for the interview. I wondered what would happen if I don't get through.

A few hours before the interview, just as I was about

DIVINE DELIVERANCE

I attended The River on Thursday 1 February. I responded to Pastor Matthew's revelation that there were people in the service who were experience 'pain inside the bone'. I had a painful ankle and felt severe pain when I put pressure on it, especially going up and down the stairs.

I left after the service, claiming my healing but still felt the pain. The following morning I woke up and stretched my legs. I felt my ankle bone click into place - I was unaware that this was the cause of the pain. The pain has disappeared and I can now walk with ease.

During the same service that I went forward for healing Pastor Matthew asked everyone called Tony or Anthony to come to the altar.

I went back and stood in line for my son. The following day my son had an appointment at the court regarding mortgage arrears. The mortgage company was threatening to repossess his property.

When my son arrived at the court on Friday he was met by the Solicitor who assists the judge. The Solicitor he went through my son's documentation and told him that there was not a case to answer because the paperwork from the mortgage company was not completed correctly. The Solicitor advised my son to say nothing when the Judge came.

The Judge dismissed the case and advised my son to add an extra payment to his monthly repayments. This action would be evidence that my son is attempting to pay the debt. (It would also put my son in a favourable position if the company appealed.)

I went to The River on Friday 2 February and I was called out and again. Pastor Matthew identified that I was under pressure with stress related to my daughter. Pastor Matthew asked the church to pray that God would bring her back into relationship with the Lord Jesus - I now await this result. God is indeed altogether Wonderful.

GOD IS GOOD ALL THE TIME!

I have had outstanding council tax bills for the past few years. I was making payments to four different accounts: three bailiffs' accounts and one council account. I received a court summons for non-payment of the current bill.

I contacted the council to make an arrangement. I told the council representative that I am paying council tax to 4 different account's, including bailiffs. The lady said she would call me back later as she wanted to see how she could help me.

10 minutes later she called me and told me that my bill has been reduced from £2400 to £1000 and that I would now only be making payments to one account - this would be a quarter of what I was previously paying to the four different accounts.

The River is flowing as, secondly During the first week of The River, Pastor Mathew called my name, asking me to come to the altar. Unfortunately I was not in church as I had gone to do overtime at my part time job (my other position with a local authority came to an end three days before the day I expected it to).

I came to The River that week, on Tuesday and Wednesday. Pastor Matthew prayed for debt cancellation and better jobs; I claimed the answers to these prayers in Jesus' Name.

Later that week I received two emails for interviews in my main field of work. I went for an interview on Wednesday at the biggest library in the world and the second interview was with another local authority.

During the interview at the local authority I answered their questions and explained my current duties. Each time I spoke the interviewers would say: "brilliant" and "wonderful".

The interview panel consisted of two people. When the first interviewer finished, she asked the second panel member to continue with his questions. He just flipped through my CV and said there was nothing more to ask as I had said everything.

The interview lasted less than 15 minutes. Two hours later I got an email that I had been offered the job at the local authority and that I should tell them my start date. I started last week.

I wish to thank my Father in the house Pastor Mathew for his precise prophecy and for helping us stand boldly in all circumstances because he has helped us realise who we are in Christ. Thank you to Pastor Yemisi too for her helping me know that I am a winning woman.

To GOD be the GLORY, great things He has done!
S.M.
